Bring Your Passion for Teaching to TLE

The Learning Experience is hiring an experienced Lead Preschool Teacher to create a fun, nurturing, and engaging classroom where young children can learn, grow, and thrive.

You'll have the support of our proprietary L.E.A.P. Curriculum®, classroom resources, and a collaborative center team—giving you more time to focus on what matters most: teaching and building meaningful relationships with children and families.

What You'll Do

- Support a safe, engaging, and developmentally appropriate classroom
- Bring TLE's L.E.A.P. Curriculum® to life through hands-on lessons and activities
- Support children's social-emotional, language, cognitive, and physical development
- Create a positive classroom environment where every child feels welcomed and supported
- Observe children's development and communicate progress with families
- Maintain classroom routines, learning materials, and required documentation
- Partner with fellow teachers and center leadership to create an exceptional family experience
- Follow New York childcare licensing, health, and safety requirements

What We're Looking For

- Previous experience in a preschool, childcare, daycare, or early childhood classroom
- High School Diploma or equivalent required
- Strong classroom management and communication skills
- Passion for helping young children learn and develop
- Ability to build positive relationships with children, families, and coworkers
- Must meet applicable background screening, health, and training requirements

Why Join TLE

- L.E.A.P. Curriculum® and classroom resources provided
- Supportive, collaborative teaching environment
- Professional development and ongoing training
- Career growth and advancement opportunities
- Make a meaningful impact on children and families every day

Ready for your next opportunity in early childhood education? Apply today to join The Learning Experience!
