Organization Statement

At Rockgate DayCare Center, we believe every child is a cherished gift, with boundless potential and unique purpose. Our Lead Infant Teacher will play a vital role in fostering a safe, nurturing environment that inspires young hearts and minds to grow. This role includes implementing compassionate child care practices, supporting each child's social, emotional, and physical development, and nurturing their natural curiosity. Our curriculum ensures every child is guided on a path of meaningful learning.

Job Description

Â

Â

The Infant Daycare Teacher will:

- Create individual development plans for each child, fostering their self-esteem and independence.
- Build strong, trust-based relationships with families, sharing the child's experiences and growth.
- Plan and implement daily activities that guide each child toward discovery and understanding.
- Provide additional support for children with unique needs, celebrating their strengths and providing care.
- Complete daily reports and incident notes as needed, partnering with families in transparency and care.

- Encourage assistant teachers and classroom aides through supervision, training, and guidance.
- Model and adhere to all Rockgate Day Care policies, nurturing an environment of respect and kindness.
- Conduct regular developmental screenings and assessments, reflecting our commitment to every child's growth.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Ensure the health, safety, and well-being of every child through attentive, compassionate supervision.
- Collaborate with fellow teachers to support and coordinate enriching classroom experiences.
- Keep the classroom environment clean, organized, and filled with materials that spark wonder and growth.
- Serve meals with care, attending to allergies or dietary needs as a reflection of respect for each child's unique needs.
- Support each child's growth with personal care, including diapering and gentle toilet training.
- Document daily attendance, development, and milestones, allowing each child's unique journey to be celebrated.
- Actively participate in all center staff meetings, training, and community events.
